Before Hon Judge Campbell.

UMB 14 — In the Case of James Duniap, on Alleged Luic.—The Court said that the legality of the confineit of the lunatic could not be tested by writ of habeas plas, inasmuch as the original proceedings were in the reme Court, and that tribunal alone has the power of creal. Counsel should therefore apply to that court a superceder. The present writ of habeas must therebe discharged. Mr. Blankman, the counsel for Mr.
hasp, has taken the necessary steps to procure a rering in the Supreme Court.
